Mrs. Laura Lelal Beauchamp, a former resident of Pascagoula for the past 18 years, died on Friday night, December 12, 1941, after a brief illness, her death occurring at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Hollister on Beach Boulevard. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon from the home, with interment in Greenwood Cemetery. The service was conducted by Rev. E. W. Ulmer, pastor of the Methodist church, the choir of that church singing softly, the old familiar hyms, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," and the "Old Rugged Cross, as part of the church service. The following were the pall bearers: J. W. Cox, Roy Wingfield, Bill Helm, H. B. Canty, Johnny Hale and V. L. M. DeJean.

The Hollister home was a bower of beauty and fragrance, the floral offering of any friends and relatives, in token of the esteem in which deceased was held. A large number of friends and relatives followed the remains to the grave, where they were tenderly laid to rest and the grace covered with a blanket of flowers.

Mrs. Beauchamp was 86 years of age, and was a member of one of the oldest families in Louisiana, being the daughter of the late Major G. W. Munday, a pioneer citizen of East Feliciana Parish, Louisiana. She graduated from Sulliman Institute at Clinton, at 16 years of age. She had numerous friends who loved her for those womanly virtues that she possessed in a superlative degree.

Surviving are three sons and three daughters, as follows: E. L. Beauchamp, E. W. Beauchamp and McEnery Beauchamp of Clinton, La.; Mrs. I. T. Dixon, also of Clinton; Mrs. W. J. Colle and Mrs. J. J. Hollister of Pascagoula. Also surviving are 25 grandchildren and 11 greatgrandchildren. Dec 19, 19
